

LIEUTENANT COLONEL GARY M. HAUSMAN
COMMANDER, 743RD MILITARY INTELLIGENCE BATTALION

---

LTC Hausman was commissioned in the U.S. Army in 1994 as a Military Intelligence Officer from the University of California at Irvine. After completion of the MI Officer Basic Course at Ft. Huachuca, Arizona, he was assigned to the 4th Infantry Division at Fort Carson, Colorado. While in the 4th Infantry Division, he served as a MI Platoon Leader in the 104th Military Intelligence Battalion and then Assistant Battalion S2, Headquarters Company Executive Officer and Battalion S2 in the 1st Battalion (Mechanized), 12th Infantry Regiment. While remaining in the 4th Infantry Division at Fort Carson, he returned to the 104th Military Intelligence Battalion to Command Charlie Company.

He later attended the Military Intelligence Officer Advanced Course and then was assigned to the National Security Agency at Fort Meade, Maryland. During the next three years he participated in the National Security Agency's Junior Officer Cryptologic Career Program as an intern learning the inner-workings of NSA and becoming a professional Signals Intelligence Officer.

His next assignment was as the Cryptologic Services Group Officer in Charge at the Joint Special Operations Command at Fort Bragg, North Carolina. During this assignment, he served during multiple deployments to Operation Iraqi Freedom and Operation Enduring Freedom. Upon completion of this assignment, he attended the Command and General Staff College (CGSC) at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

Following graduation from GCSC, he returned to Fort Bragg and served as the 519th Military Intelligence (Airborne) Battalion Operations Officer and Executive Officer as part of the 525th Battlefield Surveillance Brigade's deployment to OIF 2007-2009. Upon redeployment, he was competitively selected to return to the Joint Special Operations Command as their Liaison Officer at the National Security Agency at Fort Meade, Maryland. On July 13, 2012, LTC Hausman assumed command of the 743rd Military Intelligence Battalion, Buckley Air Force Base, Denver, Colorado.

His awards and decorations include the Bronze Star Medal, Defense Meritorious Service Medal (1 OLC), Meritorious Service Medal, Army Commendation Medal (2 OLC), Army Achievement Medal (1 OLC), Armed Forces Expedition Medal, Iraq Campaign Medal, Global War on Terrorism Service and Expeditionary Medals, Joint Meritorious Unit Commendation, the Army Parachutist Badge and foreign jump wings from Poland.

LTC Hausman and his high school sweetheart wife Michelle have two sons, Thomas and Benjamin.
