Collin Agee became the Senior Army Operations Advisor to the NGA in July 2017. Prior to his current assignment, he served as the Army Intelligence Senior Advisor for IC Engagement for six years, following two years as the Deputy for NGA's Future Warfare Systems Office. In 2008, he served as Deputy CJ2 Forward, the senior military intelligence officer in the US Embassy Baghdad and the Green Zone, where his duties included providing intelligence to the MNF-I staff and Strategic Intelligence Engagement with the Iraqi intelligence services and senior Iraqi officials. He was the Army's Director for ISR Integration for two years, highlighted by the Actionable Intelligence Initiative and numerous intelligence Quick Reaction Capabilities in support of OIF and OEF, most notably Constant Hawk, which redefined Wide Area Persistent Surveillance. This followed four years as a contractor for Booz Allen Hamilton in support of the Army G-2 as a member of Task Force Actionable Intelligence, the US Army G2 ISR Integration Directorate and the Army Intelligence Master Plan (AIMP), where he was a co-author of the Army Intelligence Transformation Campaign Plan (AI-TCP). He served over 20 years as an Army Intelligence Officer, with assignments including J2 Operations for US forces in Haiti, XVIII Airborne Corps ACE Chief, and Senior Intelligence Officer (G2) of the 10th Mountain Division. He commanded Headquarters Company, 125th MI Battalion, Schofield Barracks, Hawaii and the Los Angeles Recruiting Battalion.

Mr. Agee has a Masters in Military Arts and Science from the School for Advance Military Studies (SAMS), a BS in National Security and Public Affairs from the US Military Academy at West Point and is a graduate of the Post Graduate Intelligence Program (PGIP). Mr. Agee created and chaired the Army Intelligence Senior Steering Group (SSG) for the Army G2 and the GEOCOM Relook Working Group and the Geospatial Training and Professional Development Subcommittee for the Geospatial Functional Manager. In his last assignment, he was a charter member of the Intelligence Community Senior Studies Group (ICSSG) and Intelligence Community Transparency Working Group (ICTWG); and is a member of the Special Multi-Layer Assessment (SMA) program, the Armed Forces Communications and Electronics Association's (AFCEA) Intelligence Committee; the Council for
