

USGIF

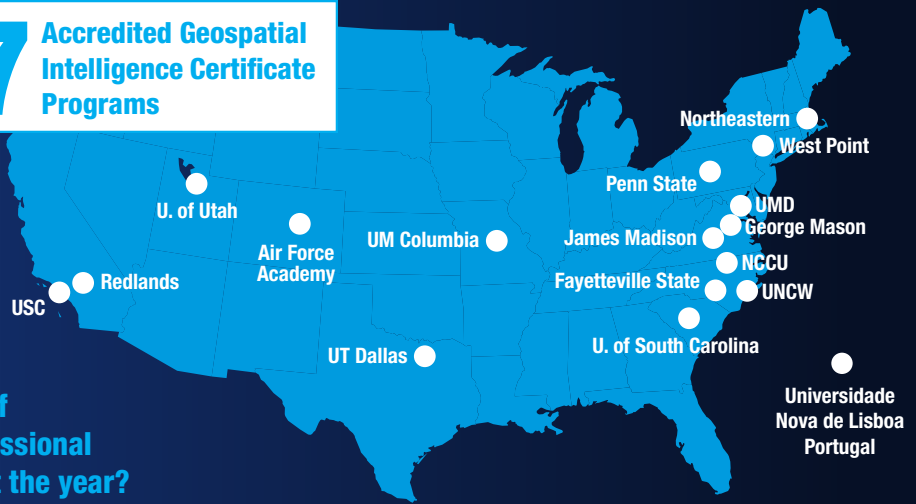

United States Geospatial Intelligence Foundation

Build the Community | Advance the Tradecraft | Accelerate Innovation

USGIF is a 501(c)(3) non-lobbying, nonprofit educational foundation dedicated to promoting the geospatial intelligence tradecraft and developing a stronger community of interest among government, industry, academia, and professional organizations.

890+ students have graduated from USGIF-accredited programs with GEOINT Certificates.

17 Accredited Geospatial
Intelligence Certificate Programs

Did you know USGIF offers hundreds of hours of training, education, and professional development opportunities throughout the year?

$1.2M+ in scholarships awarded since 2004

USGIF has published numerous community resources such as the Human Geography Monograph, GEOINT Essential Body of Knowledge, and the annual State and Future of GEOINT Report.

USGIF launched the first ever Universal GEOINT Certification Program to bolster professional development in the GEOINT tradecraft.

USGIF produces the GEOINT Symposium, the nation's largest gathering of GEOINT community professionals.

235 Organizational Members

Individual Members 1,600+

trajectory
MAGAZINE.COM

USGIF's official publication reaches 15,000 print readers and 20,000 digital subscribers.

USGIF.ORG

