Principal Deputy Director of National Intelligence Gen. Michael V. Hayden, USAF, to Present a Keynote Address at GEOINT 2005

More Distinguished Speakers Confirmed for GEOINT 2005

OAK HILL, Va., September 19, 2005 – The United States Geospatial Intelligence Foundation (USGIF) today announced that Gen. Michael V. Hayden, USAF, Principal Deputy Director of National Intelligence (PDDNI), will give a keynote address at the GEOINT 2005 Symposium.

GEOINT 2005, the premiere geospatial intelligence event of the year, will be held October 30 to November 2, 2005, in San Antonio, TX.

“We are privileged to have Gen. Michael V. Hayden, USAF, as a keynote speaker at GEOINT 2005,” said K. Stuart Shea, chairman of the board of directors, USGIF. “As the highest-ranking military intelligence officer in the Armed Forces, Gen. Hayden brings with him a wealth of knowledge and insight into the intelligence community. Our attendees look forward to hearing how our current intelligence services are adapting to meet the needs of a constantly changing world.”

Appointed by President George W. Bush on April 21, 2005, Gen. Michael V. Hayden, USAF, is the first person to ever serve in this position. As the PDDNI, Gen. Hayden is responsible for overseeing the day-to-day activities of the national intelligence program.
